Dear Friends:

Graduation Time
June 1951

Long ago, Thomas Fuller said, "Music is nothing else but wild sounds civilized into time and tone." In a figurative sense, we teachers have been master musicians, taking you as "wild" freshmen and, by exposing you to the great thoughts and impressions of the past, fitting you for harmonious living in your world. That we have tried hard is certain. To what extent we have succeeded will show itself in your lives.

Just as the composer looks forward to the opening performance of his opera, forgetting all the hardships of his labors in the triumph of his work, so do we teachers glory in the achievements of those whom we have helped to mould.

That God may grant you many years of harmonious living with your fellow men; that your life may be a song, delighting the hearts of all who hear it, is the sincere wish of your friend.

Principal

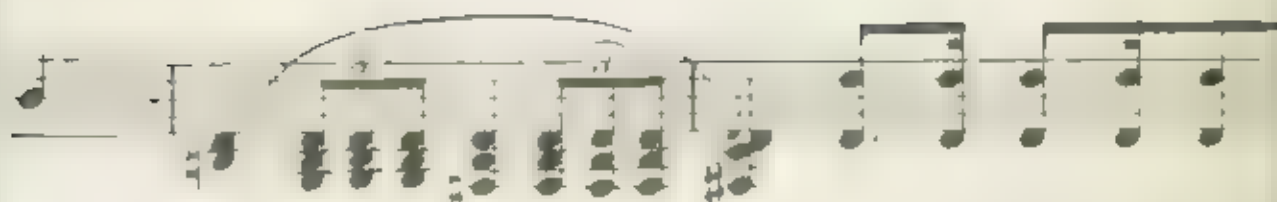

The past is never entirely forgotten, even as we look anticipately toward the future and toward our new lives.

In these four short years, we have changed from children, in a small sheltered world, to adults, fully aware of the vastness of our responsibilities and the important part we must play in our new world, as the instrument plays its part in the orchestration of a melody.

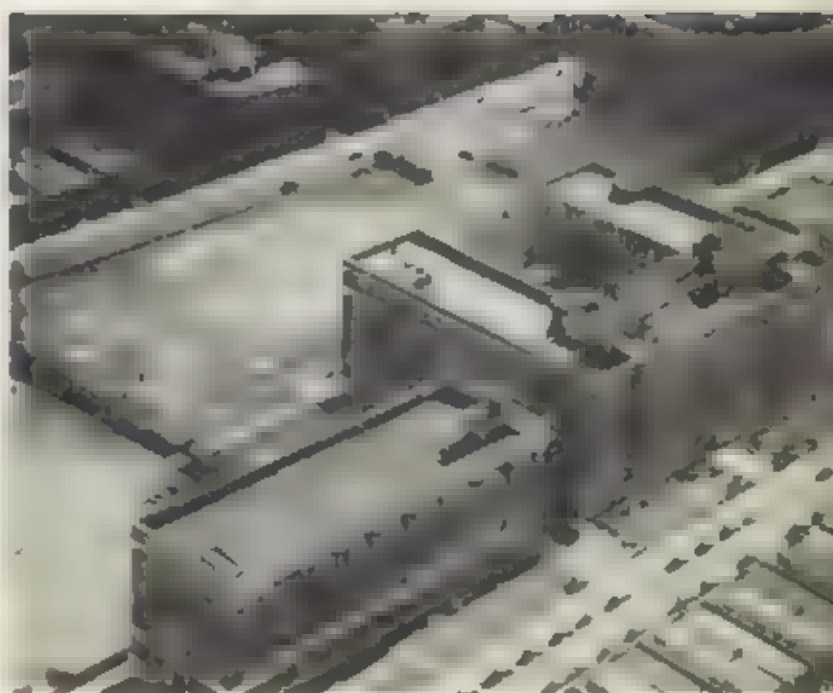

Although many members of our class will soon be scattered over the world, they will eventually come to rest in colleges, factories and offices. But wherever they may go, Monrovians of the class of June '51 will remember all those extra-special sounds of Monroe and whisper to themselves, it was music . . . music . . . music . . .

Andante Cantabile

Let's walk through the Marble Halls that serve as an overture to the real Monroe. And as we walk, let us take deep notice of the things we pass. We'll tiptoe past the principal's office and, gaining momentum, enter the auditorium, the "Monroe Music Hall." We are awed by the harmonious pattern that is made by the lights dancing on the yawning stage. Then, out of nowhere, a bell rings and sends us clattering up the stairs to the classes, offices and gyms. Yes, and the gyms where the tempo of bouncing balls and the stamping of feet echo up to the rafters of the fifth floor lunchroom. Here, a type of jazz prevails resembling the beating of drums and the blowing of horns. But now, walking out of the lunchroom, the noise ends and these halls grow still. Yet, as the sounds themselves fade, the echoes and memories grow louder and louder.

Allegro

The lights in the auditorium dim and the curtain parts. A sudden hush envelopes the audience as the members of the orchestra take their respective places for the last time on the stage.

A look of sadness and accomplishment appears on their faces as their minds travel back over the fruitful and happy years. They recall the first time they took their places to become a part of this orchestra.

As the conductor triumphantly raises his shining baton, so we of the James Monroe High School turn the pages of this great symphony overture and present to you, the members of our production: the young men and women of the June 1951 graduating class.

SERVICE LEAGUE

Monroe's enterprising music department has contributed many talented performers to the theatrical world. Below are a few of those who have become well-known and belong in Monroe's Music Hall of Fame.

Jules Munshin—star of "Call Me Mister" and "On The Town"

Theresa Giuliano—with the Opera Repertoire Company

Arthur Aaron—cellist with Metropolitan Opera Orchestra

Henry Aaron—conductor, Buffalo Symphony

Marie Foster (Fazzini)—musical comedy "Red Mill"

Mindy Carson—singer

Regina Resnick—Metropolitan Opera Star
Bernie Glatzer—trumpet with Tommy Dorsey, Louis Prima and Xavier Cugat
Herbie Sheldon (Schulman)—winner on Arthur Godfrey Show
Flo Kopiloff—with Fred Waring and the Robert Shaw Collegiate Chorale
Paul Gurevitch—violinist
David Katz—Philharmonic
Pat Cantardi — trombonist, Raymond Scott Orchestra
Sol Rumberg — viola, with NBC Symphony Orchestra

Jan Bart—singing star WMGM

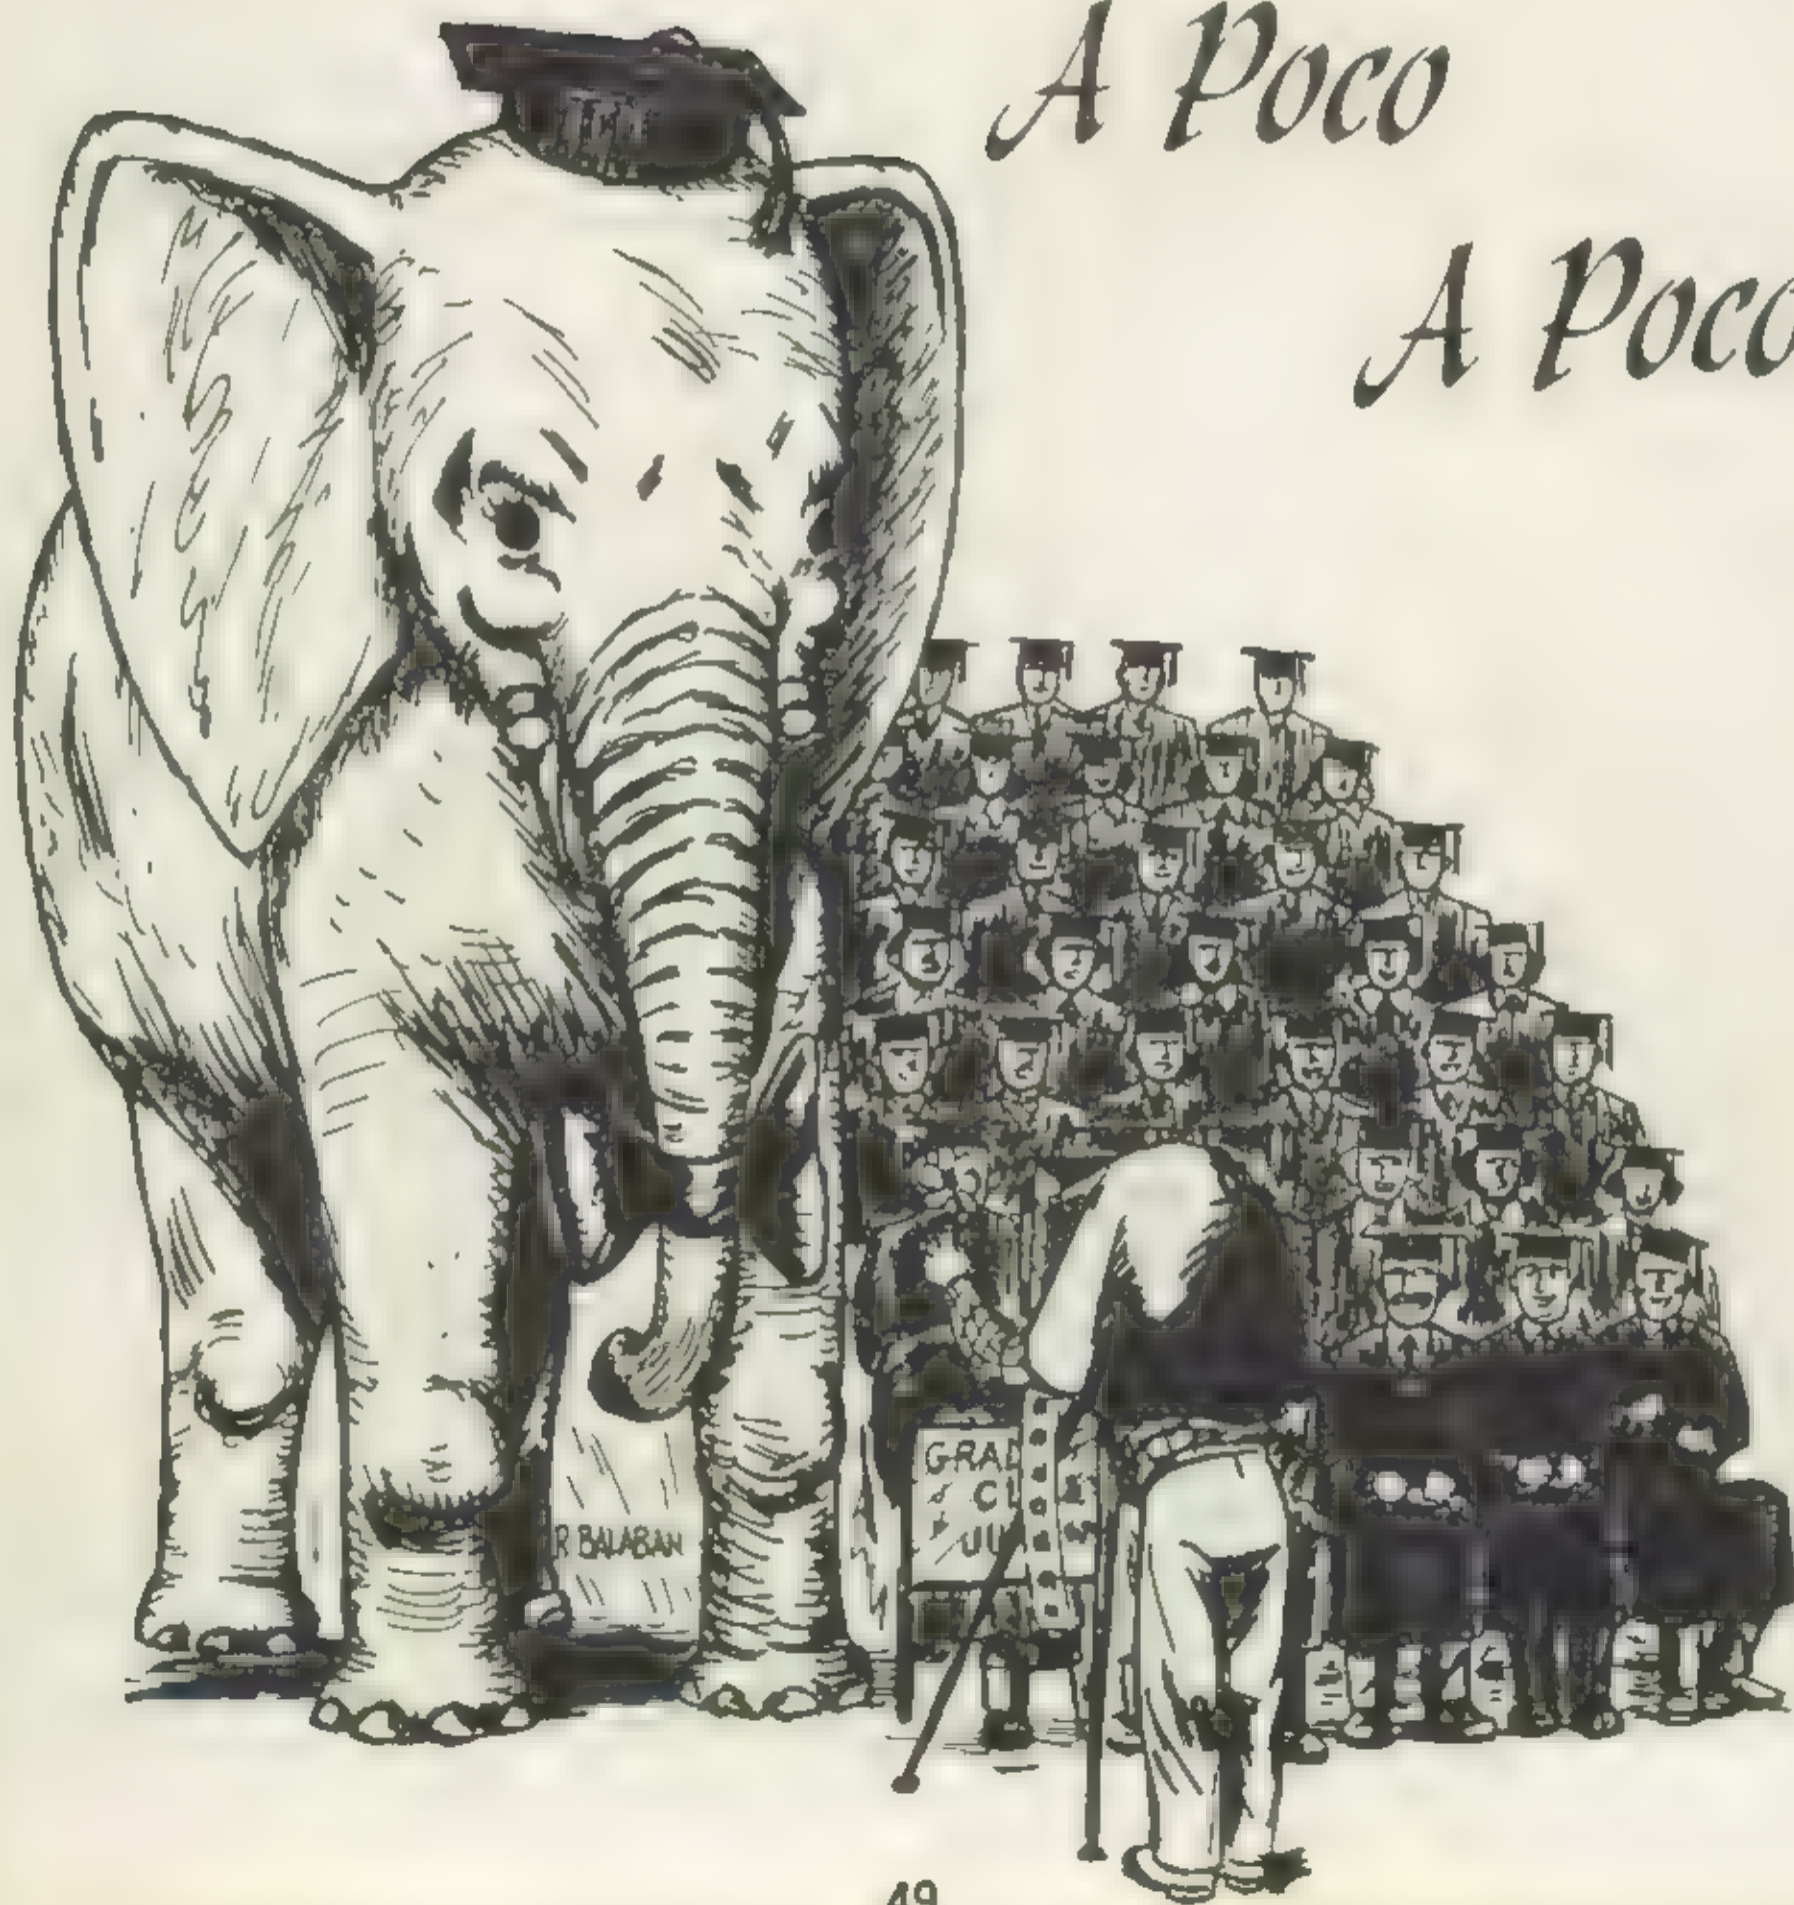

So, the finale has come, and before we realize it, the cast of June '51 will be taking their last bows. Yet, as they leave the stage, they'll carry with them the echoes of their high and low notes at Monroe. Sometime in the future you may relive the thrill you had when you typed your first letter; the crescendos in math you reached; the noise in the lunchroom, where, if you didn't have time to eat food, at least you filled up on the eccentricities of your teachers.

Now after four wonderful acts, overflowing with sharps and flats, we suddenly find that our opera is over. And sadly, we put "finis" at the end of our score and hurriedly admit that despite all the false notes, our opera, written, conducted, and sung by the June '51 graduates, was pretty grand after all.

Never was a term so hectic as this last one. The staccato of the Yearbook staff at work, campaigning by the senior officers, nominating of senior celebrities and the riotous shouts of Red Letter Day. Yes, all of these combined to make a melody of joy, laughter, and perhaps joined sometimes with a little pathos.

Senior Council meetings every Wednesday . . . Senior Treasurers—How we ran at the sight of that outstretched hand as our treasurer gleefully asked for our money! . . . LEAVE ME ALONE. I'LL BRING IT TOMORROW . . . Oh yes, and the Service Aids — They listened for a split second to your explicit instructions and then returned with a size seven hat that was too big for your swelled senior head .

FIVE YEARS FROM NOW

Dear Graduate:

Five years from now perhaps you will once again open this book while sitting in your home. Many memories will once again become vivid pictures of the days you spent in the corridors of Monroe. Perhaps, also, at that time, you will have graduated from college or will be permanently established in the business world. Whatever you may be doing at that time, you may be assured that James Monroe High School will still be interested in you. We are interested because one of our main principles at Monroe is finding out which procedures followed here at school aided or hindered you in whatever you are doing today. We want to make our teaching worthwhile and effective enough so that future graduates may be prepared to face a changing world. For this reason, we are anxious to hear from you—so won't you answer the questions and return them to the principal?

A. What are you doing now?

B. Is it the type of work for which you were preparing yourself while in our high school?

C. Tell us in detail how the work done by our school aided you in your present duties.

D. If our school was of no assistance to you in the work you are doing now, either in business or professional work, tell us honestly, and in detail, just in which respects you think we could improve our work as teachers, so that future graduates may benefit by your suggestions.

E. In what way do you feel we succeeded, or failed, in helping you to adapt yourself in your school relationships since you left our school?

F. In what ways did we succeed or fail in helping you to become a worthy citizen of the community in which you live or spend your time? In what civic movements have you cooperated or are you engaged now? What improvements would you suggest in the preparation given here?

G. Do you see or meet with any of your fellow graduates? What is their opinion of the work we have done as teachers?

H. Will you ask these fellow graduates to get in touch with the school and tell us something about themselves?

HAIL AND FAREWELL

A note with the cryptic message "Please see me immediately regarding your graduation" has been the introduction of some of you to our Senior Office. For others, a forlorn "my head must be measured" or "hasn't my jewelry come in yet?" served as the entree into what I hope has been a pleasant experience. These were the moments which you will remember long after the basic subject matter has been forgotten. So, Hail and farewell to all of you. Come back again—same place, any time—let's swap stories of mutual friends and enjoy for a few brief moments the joys of the happy times at Monroe.

ODE TO A SENIOR

Many subjects have we passed
 In a happy state
 But don't relax poor Students yet
 But don't relax poor Seniors yet
 Until ye graduate!
 So heave-ho my hearty friends
 And get ye to ye class.
 Work now, and THEN ye can relax
 As graduate lads and lasses
